BOOKS

The following books are useful resources written by Christian authors. Although these may be edifying, it is important to test and weigh all teaching in light of Scripture. The only perfect book is the Bible, and the only perfect teacher was Jesus. We should be in the habit of distinguishing biblically supported points from authors' personal advice, opinions, and interpretations.

MOVIES

There are many good Christian movies. Included below are stories based on true events, fictional stories, testimonies, documentaries, and visual depictions of Bible stories. When watching movies about Bible stories, make sure to review the biblical text along with the film. This will help with distinguishing between biblically accurate scenes and creative interpretation.
